'A St Petersburg palace set on a Yorkshire ridge'

Renowned for its outstanding architecture, interiors, art and landscape, Harewood House welcomes guests to enjoy its exquisite historic splendour – in an utterly unique, inspirational setting for events; yet only seven miles from central Leeds and Harrogate.

From the moment guests cross the dramatic threshold to Harewood's glorious grounds, they are transported to a different world ...

Located in the heart of Harewood's 'Capability' Brown landscape, a few hundred metres from the House itself, overlooking the lake, the Courtyard is also a wonderful venue for any type of event.

Situated in 200 acres of parkland, promote wellbeing in your team by participating in the great outdoors as part of your day. Join in one of our gardening workshops, volunteer in our bird garden, practice yoga in the Himalayan Gardens or why not even walk an Alpaca?

All profits raised by holding an event here goes directly towards supporting the Harewood House Trust, an educational charity, set up to preserve and develop the House, collections and grounds.

Weddings and parties at Harewood

Harewood is a magical venue for a party or wedding celebration, a setting to make that special day even more memorable.

The largest or smallest parties can be accommodated in style and elegance; whether it is in a Sperry Tent with spectacular views, a ceremony in the grandeur of the House or reception in the elegant Courtyard. There's even the opportunity to take photographs in Harewood's glorious gardens.

Corporate Events & Hospitality

Conference or corporate hospitality; training or trade shows; product launches or presentations; all benefit from this wonderfully diverse location; so close to Leeds and Harrogate, with excellent road, train and air links, yet a whole world away enabling delegates to really concentrate on the business of the day.

Day delegate and menu packages are available to suit all requirements.

And of course the House and Courtyard can be your base for all manner of activities in and around Harewood's grounds – ride and drives, team-building or even staff family fun days.

VENUE DIRECTORY

Lakeside Terrace & Garden

With its stunning location overlooking the trees and the lake sparkling beyond, the Lakeside Terrace is an unforgettable space in which to relax and unwind.

VENUE DIRECTORY

Harewood House

The seat of the Earl and Countess of Harewood, this historic Georgian property sits within 'Capability' Brown designed parkland, with remarkable views from the award winning Terrace. Inside, you'll discover lavish Georgian interiors designed by Robert Adam, with exquisite Chippendale furnishings.

With a long tradition of great service, Harewood provides an experience that you and your guests will never forget.

The Gallery

Your guests will be greeted in the elegant Entrance Hall and Library. Whilst sipping a chilled glass of Champagne, guests have the option to muse out onto the Terrace to enjoy the breath-taking views of the 'Capability' Brown landscape.

The Gallery epitomises Harewood's elegant grandeur. The walls are adorned with one of the best, private Renaissance art collections in the UK, including masterpieces by El Greco, Bellini and Titian. Crowned heads and American presidents have dined at Harewood, and some of the world's finest musicians have played here. If you want to give your guests the very best, an event in the Gallery offers exactly that.

State Dining Room

The magnificent State Dining Room centres around its grand mahogany table. A striking, central candelabra sits on the table and some of Chippendale's finest pieces are on display. This is where the richness of the past meets culinary flavours of the present to create the most memorable of dining experiences.

Harewood House

Stewards Room

The Old Kitchen provides a traditional, warm welcome to guests with its rows of gleaming copper pots and high vaulted ceilings. In times gone by, the household was run from the Stewards Room and it is now a perfect room for smaller, more intimate meetings, lunches and dinners.

Billiard Room

Until recently the office of Lord Harewood, the Billiard Room with its views over the Terrace is perfect for the quintessential country house afternoon teas or smaller more intimate lunches, dinners or meetings.

Exclusive Tours – NEW

Exclusive tour and dining opportunities are now available of the first floor of Harewood House, known as the Private Apartments. It consists of numerous suites of rooms (including bedrooms, living areas and a dining room) that are used solely by the Lascelles family and their guests.

Until recently, these apartments were the primary residence of the Dowager Countess of Harewood and formerly her husband, George Lascelles, 7th Earl of Harewood, who had lived there together for over 40 years. The Private Apartments are now used by the current Earl and Countess and their family and are not open to the public.
